BOUNCY CASTLES

Bouncy castles can be used under the following conditions:

1. When booking, the hirer must declare that they intend to have a bouncy castle.

This declaration will imply a commitment to make sure that:

- The bouncy castle will be supervised at all times by an adult (over 18).
- Public liability insurance will be provided either by the supplier or the hirer*.

2. Before the actual booking, the hirer must confirm that insurance is in place, and must be prepared to provide evidence for this.

The hall reserves the right to prohibit the use of the castle, or even to cancel the booking if appropriate evidence is not provided on request.

*PLEASE NOTE: The hall insurance doesn't cover use of bouncy castles. The hall is only responsible for advising hirers that they must put appropriate arrangements in place.

Any responsible supplier of a bouncy castle must have insurance, but often their public liability insurance will only apply if they are present to supervise the use of the castle.

If they are not present and their cover doesn't apply, then the hirer is responsible for providing public liability insurance and for supervision of the castle by an adult over 18.

It is the responsibility of the hirer to investigate what cover is provided and when they should buy additional cover themselves. Insurance for a one-off event can be purchased.

Should you need to obtain party insurance which includes cover for use of bouncy castles, we have found:-

- Park Insurance
- Peacock Insurance

We are not recommending these companies, we are just aware they offer insurance - there will be others too.

Thank you,
